

Calendar of the Jewish Year

Judaism has its own calendar with Hebrew months to order the year and mark religious festivals.

The Jewish calendar is different from the Gregorian calendar now used around the world as it is a Lunar calendar. As a result, the two calendars don't exactly match, so Jewish festivals fall on slightly different British dates each year.

Use this calendar wheel to discover the most important festivals in the Hebrew calendar.

